Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Claims 6 stands rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hallahan (US Patent NO: 6,159,443) in view of the know fact disclosed in the specification on pages 4 lines 15-20; 5, lines 1-5; and 10, lines 12-20 and Mastrobattista et al., (Biochim. Biophys. Acta, 1999, 1419, 353-363). Applicant's arguments and the Examiner's rebuttlir are essentially the same set forth in the previous Office Actions, Paper NOs: 9 and 11, mailed on 4/8/03 and 06/26/03.

Applicant asserts that: (i) there is no motivation or suggestion to substitute ICAM as taught by Mastrobattista et al. for P-selectin as taught by Hallahan et al.; (ii) at best one of ordinary skill in the art could only try to substitute delivery vehicles binding to ICAM-1 for delivery vihicles in Hallahan et al.

In response to applicant's argument that there is no motivation or suggestion to combine the references, the examiner recognizes that references cannot be arbitrarily combined and that there must be some reason why one skilled in the art would be motivated to make the proposed combination of primary and secondary references. In re Nomiya, 184 USPQ 607 (CPA 1975). However, there is no requiremen that a motivation to make the modification be expressly articulated. The test for combining references is what the combination of disclosures taken as a whole would suggest to one of ordinary skill in the art. In re McLaughlin, 170 USPQ 209 (CCPA 1971). References are evaluated by what they suggest to one versed in the art, rather than by their specific disclosures. In re Bozek, 163 USPQ 545 (CCPA 1969).

In response to applicant's argument that the rejection is based upon an "obvious-to-try" standard; it is by now well understood that the ultimate conclusion of law that claimed subject matter as a whole would have been obvious under 35 USC 103 may at times properly be drawn from an inference of fact arising from prior art teachings which could be considered an inference that it would be "obvious to try" that which is claimed. In re O'Farrell, 853 F.2d 894, 7 USPQ 2d 1973 (Fed. Cir. 1988); Contour Saws Inc. v. Starrett Co., 444 F. 2d 433, 170 USPQ 433 (Ct.App. 1977); In re Marzocchi, 439 F. 2d 220, 169 USPQ 367 (CCPA 1977); In re Lindell, 385 F. 2d 435, 155 USPQ 52 (CCPA 1967). The evidence of purported unobvious results of record in this application is insufficient to overcome the inference of fact in this case. Therefore the above claims remain rejected under 35 USC 103 for the reasons set forth in the previous Office Actions, Paper NOs: 9 and 11, mailed on 4/8/03 and 06/26/03.
